PRESS RELEASE

The zany Mark Wood Fun Show is coming to _____ (insert venue) on _____ (insert date) at _____ (insert time).

Cowboy Mark Wood loves to make people laugh and he has been doing it for a very long time. Mark started entertaining audiences when he was just eight years old and has been in show business for more than 40 years.

During his stage shows, Mark delights audiences with his crazy comedy, magic, juggling and lots of audience participation. And when strolling, he does lots of balloon sculpturing and some rope spinning.

Mark Wood, of Jackson, Ohio, started his show business career in the third grade and taught himself magic from books at the Jackson City Library. He was soon a performing magician. A few years later, Mark combined the magic and clowning into "Marko," a magical clown character. Mark still describes himself as a clown, only "without the makeup."

Then in 1993, he combined his magic, clowning, juggling and balloon sculpturing into a new act with a western theme, the Mark Wood Fun Show. "The best way to learn magic, juggling and making balloon animals, is from books," says Wood. "Everything that I have learned about show business has been from books. My father was a school principal and he knew I had to read lots of books to learn more about magic."

Mark is a full-time professional entertainer. He has been featured on many television shows and now travels extensively throughout the Midwest. He performs at schools, libraries, county fairs, festivals, malls and corporate events.
